San Francisco

- 1 Get inspired by digital experience thought leaders, who share their knowledge and expertise on building a future-proof digital business.
- 2 Learn from industry-leading brands who describe their journeys to digital success, and give advice for innovation in today's business environment.

Last year, speakers from Staples, Hilton and Capital One took the stage.
- 3 Enjoy a friendly, relaxed atmosphere perfect for networking with 350+ digital experience professionals.
- 4 Get into deep discussions about Bloomreach products with other users. Swap practical tips and tricks on taking innovative ideas and translating them into real life situations.
- 5 Pick and choose the sessions you want to join with multiple agenda tracks available - with talks that finish on time!
- 6 Attendees Loved Last Year's Connect
"I thought the talks were incredibly insightful, and I enjoyed connecting with the people that have worked with Bloomreach"
"The openness of people, the location, and the personal "taking care of" the day prior to the event made me feel I am visible as a person and a partner"
"The best parts: the opportunity to connect, fast internet and great fresh dark chocolate croissants"
- 7 Get an exclusive sneak peak at the Bloomreach Roadmap to see the exciting product innovations on the horizon.
- 8 Meet with Bloomreach product experts in a 1-on-1 setting to describe your project vision, the hurdles that come along with it, and get all your questions answered.
- 9 Get innovative in the Midway - a state-of-the-art venue brimming with creativity, situated in the up-and-coming Dogpatch neighborhood,
10 minutes way from San Francisco center.
- 10 Let your hair down at the brBash - the afterparty filled with delicious food, flowing drinks and energy.

★ A BloomReach customer or partner? Make the most out of your time in San Francisco by joining one of the user groups or the partner morning.
